

A Great Weekend of Camping & Country Music

Some travelled & camped in style

Others in comfort

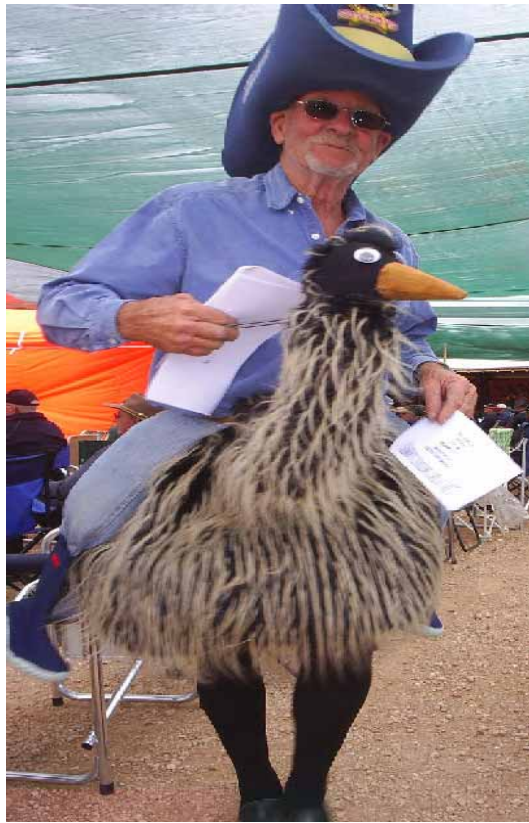

Me, I just camped in the scrub with plenty of open space

$1 tickets to purchase food and drinks all reasonably priced and the Camp Cooked Meal was to be well worth the wait.

Bits & pieces for country music enthusiasts

Strange animals roaming around the bush

The line dancers never missed a step

This event will be in next years Calender for the last weekend in October 2007
